

DIVOC PRIZE 2024

Third edition

Open to all languages and countries of the world

THE ONLY PRIZE ADDRESSED TO PEOPLE NOT VACCINATED AGAINST COVID-19

“This award seeks to restore dignity to those who have freely decided not to get vaccinated, free people who have been mortified for their free choice.”
MP Vittorio Sgarbi

The Audax publishing house, starting from an idea of the philosopher and writer Emanuele Franz, organizes the one and only literary prize addressed to people who have not undergone the anti covid-19 vaccination.

The fundamental requirement that the candidate must have is that he has not undergone any dose of the anti covid-19 vaccine.

To be won also a fine mosaic work by the master mosaicist Giulio Menossi.

Testimonial:

Paolo Borgognone (historian and essayist), Tiziana Alterio (writer and journalist), Fabrizio Carloncelli (winner Divoc 2022), Alessandro Meluzzi (psychiatrist and essayist), Alessandro Fusillo (lawyer), Diego Fusaro (philosopher and essayist), Margherita Furlan (journalist)
